Step 3 – Would you like to apply for insurance cover?

- I am interested in applying for death cover or death and TPD cover. Refer to the Partner Section Section (Spouse Contribution Section) in Detail booklet for details of the cover and the applicable premiums. I intend to apply for $_____ of death or death and TPD cover.
- I do not wish to apply for death or death and TPD cover.

Please return your completed application (including the Personal Statement) to:
ANZ Staff Super

Melbourne Vic 3001
- Your application for cover will not be effective until the Insurer has accepted your application.
- The cost of your death and TPD cover or death only cover is deducted from your account monthly or on exit from the Personal Section by redeeming some of your units.

OR

I would like all (100%) of my benefit paid to my estate

- * Please provide the contact address and date of birth for each of your nominees to assist us to contact them in the event of your death.
-  The persons you nominate must be your 'Dependant' or legal personal representative (that is, the executor or administrator of your estate).

'Dependant' is defined as:

- your spouse – whether by marriage, a de facto relationship or a registered relationship under a law of State or Territory (including same-sex partners in all cases);
- your children including step-children, adopted children and your spouse's children;
- any other person who the Trustee considers is wholly or partially dependent on you at the time of death; or
- any person you have an interdependency relationship with. Two people (whether or not related by family) have an interdependency relationship if:
 1. they have a close personal relationship; and
 2. they live together; and
 3. one or each of them provides the other with financial support; and
 4. one or each of them provides the other with domestic support and personal care.

An interdependency relationship will also exist between two people if they have a close personal relationship but do not meet the other criteria as listed above (2, 3 & 4) because either or both of them suffer from a physical, intellectual or psychiatric disability.

Any amounts paid to your legal personal representative would be distributed according to your Will, or if you don't have a Will, according to the laws of the State in which you resided at the date of your death.

By signing below I declare that I have read this section and understand that:

- the nominations I have made on this form are not binding on the Trustee and the Trustee is not obliged to pay a death benefit to the dependant(s) I nominate
- the Trustee cannot consider a nomination unless it is in favour of my spouse, my children, a person who is financially dependent on me and/or a person who is my dependant under superannuation law
- if a nominated beneficiary does not survive me, his/her share of the benefit may be paid, at the discretion of the Trustee, to my estate or to my other dependants
- I consent to my information being collected, disclosed and used in the manner set out in this form.

Step 5 – Provide your Tax File Number

Don't pay more tax than you have to – let us know your Tax File Number.

Your Tax File Number is confidential and you don't have to give it to the Trustee of the ANZ Australian Staff Superannuation Scheme. It is not an offence to not provide your Tax File Number. However, you may pay more tax than you have to if you don't supply it.

My Tax File Number is: - -

Special note: The Trustee is required by law to ask for your Tax File Number. By providing your Tax File Number, you're allowing the Trustee to use it to:

- find or identify your super when there's no other way
- work out any tax payable
- pass your Tax File Number to the Australian Taxation Office when you receive your super payout or have unclaimed super money after reaching pension age or if otherwise required
- pass your Tax File Number to any other super fund or account to which your super is transferred in the future, unless you tell the Trustee in writing not to do so
- report details of contributions to the Australian Taxation Office for working out whether any tax is applicable if contributions for you exceed certain limits, and
- where required by law, pass your Tax File Number to other Government agencies.

If you don't provide your Tax File Number, now or later:

- you may pay more tax on contributions made by your employer and certain other contributions made by or for you. In some circumstances, you may be able to claim this additional tax back, but time limits and other rules may apply
- the Trustee will only be able to accept contributions made for you by your employer. No other contributions, for example, after-tax contributions, can be accepted
- you may pay more tax on your super benefit that you would otherwise (although you can claim this additional tax back when you lodge your tax return), and
- it may be more difficult to find your super in the future if you change your address without notifying the Trustee or if you rollover any other super accounts you may have.

The legal purposes for which the Trustee can use your Tax File Number and the consequences for not quoting your Tax File Number may change in the future.
