

You don't need to say goodbye when you leave ANZ

We're coming with you

Leaving ANZ doesn't mean leaving ANZ Staff Super

Going to a new employer

If you're leaving ANZ, your ANZ Staff Super may be coming with you to your new employer.

If the ATO has ANZ Staff Super as your 'stapled' fund and you change jobs, your new employer will need to pay your super contributions to us, unless you direct them otherwise.

If you're happy to stay with us and we're your stapled fund, you will become a member of our Personal Section. This has been designed specially for former ANZ employees and their partners. Any new contributions to ANZ Staff Super will be directed to your Personal Section account.

To make sure your super contributions continue to go into your ANZ Staff Super simply complete the attached form and give it to your new employer.

For information about the Personal Section, read the Product Disclosure Statement available in the PDS and Guides section of anzstaffsuper.com.

Ready to retire

If you're leaving ANZ to move into retirement and have $25,000 or more in your account, our pension options mean you can stay with ANZ Staff Super and convert your super into a regular income in retirement.

For more information about your retirement options talk to an ANZ Staff Super financial adviser* on 1800 000 086 for advice over the phone.

The benefits

By staying with ANZ Staff Super, you'll continue to benefit from:

- membership of one of Australia's largest corporate super funds
- very competitive administration and investment fees
- a choice of investment options that can be mixed and matched
- continued death and Total and Permanent Disablement (TPD) insurance cover (where applicable)
- flexible insurance cover - you'll be able to apply to change your death and TPD insurance cover (subject to underwriting if you are increasing your cover)
- pre-retirement and retirement pension options
- web and mobile access to your account details; and
- access to limited personal financial advice about your options from ANZ Staff Super financial advisers*.

Plus, you'll avoid the hassle of having multiple super funds (and paying multiple sets of fees!).

If we're not your 'stapled' fund and you want your superannuation contributions to go into your ANZ Staff Super account in the Personal Section, simply complete the attached form and give it to your employer.

We're here to support you through your savings journey and into retirement

What happens when you leave ANZ

When you leave ANZ, if your account balance is:

$7,500 or more

You'll be automatically transferred to the Personal Section.

Your existing investment choices and your MySuper or Choice classification will stay the same.

If you had insurance cover in the Employee Section, your cover will generally stay the same in the Personal Section. See 'Your insurance' on page 4 for more information.

30 days after you have transferred to the Personal Section a new account management fee will apply. This is a net fee of 0.16%* p.a. of your account balance.

Less than $7,500

If you want to stay with ANZ Staff Super, you'll need to increase your account balance to $7,500 or more within 30 days of receiving your superannuation benefit estimate after leaving ANZ.

To increase your account balance you can:

- roll money into your account from any other super accounts you may have, or
- make a voluntary contribution

You can find and combine your other super by logging in to anzstaffsuper.com. Rollover and contribution forms are also on our website.

If, 30 days after receiving your benefit estimate, your account balance is less than $7,500 and if you've not advised us where to transfer your benefit, it will be transferred to the ATO. You'll no longer be a member of ANZ Staff Super. Any insurance cover you have will cease, and you will need to contact the ATO to access your benefits.

*A fee of 0.19% p.a. along with a rebate of 0.03% p.a. of your account balance up to $500,000 applies currently, meaning the net account management fee is 0.16% p.a. This fee rebate is reviewed annually.

Your insurance

When you transfer to the Personal Section, your insurance cover will generally remain the same.

If you're an Employee Section member, your insurance cover (if any) will continue for death cover and TPD insurance cover up to age 60. If you're an Employee Section C member with Multi-level Cover, Full Cover (i.e. 15% x Exit Salary x Years to age 60) will apply for death and TPD insurance cover.

You can apply to change your death or both your death and TPD insurance cover. If you are applying to increase your cover, you'll need to provide health and other personal information for assessment by the Insurer. Any additional cover will not commence until your application is accepted by the Insurer.

You can cancel your TPD insurance cover or both your death and TPD insurance cover.

Premiums for any insurance cover will be deducted from your account. The premiums are higher in the Personal Section than the Employee Section. Current insurance charge rebates will continue to apply, if applicable.
