1. About the ANZ Staff Super – Personal Section

ANZ Staff Super is a corporate superannuation fund for current and former employees of ANZ and its associated companies. The trustee of ANZ Staff Super and issuer of this product is ANZ Staff Superannuation (Australia) Pty Limited (the "Trustee").

The Personal Section allows you to leave your account invested in ANZ Staff Super when you leave employment with ANZ or when you close your account in the Partner Section or Retirement Section. A minimum account balance of $7,500 is required to maintain an account in the Personal Section.

You may also become a member of the Personal Section if you are a member of the Employee Section or Employee Section C and elect to have contributions paid to another fund under Choice of Fund.

ANZ Staff Super also offers the:

- Partner Section which allows you to establish and contribute to a superannuation account for your spouse
- Retirement Section which allows you to convert your benefit to a pension when you retire or when you are transitioning to retirement.

Product Disclosure Statements for the Partner and Retirement Sections are available on our website anzstaffsuper.com or by contacting ANZ Staff Super. You should consider the relevant PDS before making a decision to invest in these products.

Overall ANZ Staff Super has around 28,000 members and manages over $7 billion for its members.

MySuper

Under superannuation legislation, members are classified as either MySuper or Choice members. On transferring to the Personal Section, your classification will be the same as applied in your former section of ANZ Staff Super.

It generally doesn't make any difference whether you are classified as a MySuper or Choice member, in the Personal Section because:

- If you are classified as a MySuper member, you can opt to switch your investment choice to another one of the options offered by ANZ Staff Super or to a combination of these options. If you are a MySuper member and you choose to change your investment choice, you will then be classified as a Choice member.
- The fees and costs applying for each investment option are the same.
- The insurance arrangements for the Personal Section (including the cover options and premium rates) are the same.
- The account management fee applying to your account in the Personal Section is the same.

Regardless of how your account is invested, you can choose to opt out of being classified as a MySuper member at any time.

Our website includes a range of articles and educational material, including product dashboards, certain details about the Trustee (including the Trustee and executive officer remuneration disclosure information) and documents relating to ANZ Staff Super. For the product dashboards, go to anzstaffsuper.com > Product dashboard, and for the Trustee details and Scheme documents go to anzstaffsuper.com > Trustee information.

This PDS was prepared and issued by ANZ Staff Superannuation (Australia) Pty Limited ABN 92 006 680 664 AFSL 238268 RSEL L0000543 as trustee for the ANZ Australian Staff Superannuation Scheme ABN 83 810 127 567 RSE R1000863 (ANZ Staff Super)

2. How super works

Superannuation is a partly compulsory means of saving for your retirement over the long term. Tax savings are provided by the Government through concessional tax rates which apply to super contributions and investment earnings to provide an incentive to save for your retirement.

Contributions

Different types of contributions can be paid to your account in ANZ Staff Super. The types of contributions that ANZ Staff Super can accept by or in respect of you depend on your age and employment status.

Restrictions may also apply if ANZ Staff Super does not have your Tax File Number recorded.

Employer contributions

All Australian employers are required to provide a minimum level of superannuation support for their employees under the Superannuation Guarantee (SG) legislation.

Your employer may pay contributions to ANZ Staff Super on your behalf.

Voluntary contributions

Making additional contributions to your super may be an effective way to increase your retirement savings. You can make additional contributions from your pre-tax salary (by salary sacrifice) or your post-tax salary. Payment of contributions from your pre-tax salary is subject to the agreement of your employer.

Co-contributions

If you make voluntary post-tax contributions and meet certain eligibility conditions, the Government may make co-contributions to your account.

Contribution limits

There are limits on the contributions to super which can be made by or in respect of you without incurring additional tax. Limits apply to:

- concessional (pre-tax) contributions, which include SG contributions and voluntary pre-tax contributions; and
- non-concessional (post-tax) contributions.

More information about these limits is outlined in "How super is taxed" on page 5.

Transfers from other super funds

If you have super savings in other funds, you may want to consider transferring these accounts into ANZ Staff Super. This may offer advantages such as saving on investment management and administration fees. You can make an online request to have your other super rolled in through the Find and combine page in the secure section of our website anzstaffsuper.com. A 'Rollover' form is available at anzstaffsuper.com > Forms or by calling us on 1800 000 086.

Choice of Fund

Under Choice of Fund law, employers are required to offer employees the choice of which fund their SG contributions are paid into.

When you leave ANZ and start work with a new employer, you may be able to elect to have contributions paid to your account in ANZ Staff Super by completing a 'Standard Choice' Form and nominating ANZ Staff Super as your chosen fund. ANZ Staff Super's compliance confirmation and contribution payment instructions are available on our website or by calling us on 1800 000 086.

Restrictions on withdrawal

Superannuation is a long-term investment. Restrictions apply to when you can access certain components of your super. Generally you can only access your super when you retire or cease gainful employment after age 60 or when you reach age 65. There are some special circumstances when you can access your benefit earlier.

The section called "How super works" in the Personal Section in Detail booklet explains in more detail the types of contributions that can be paid to ANZ Staff Super, how to make additional contributions and accessing your benefits from ANZ Staff Super.

You should read the important information about "How super works" before making a decision. Go to anzstaffsuper.com > PDS and guides > Personal Section in Detail. The material relating to "How super works" may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

3. Benefits of investing with the ANZ Staff Super Personal Section

On transferring to the Personal Section of ANZ Staff Super, you continue to be part of a large, diversified and well-managed superannuation fund providing a sound investment for your future financial security.

Being a member of the Personal Section of ANZ Staff Super offers you:

- a competitive account management fee
- a range of investment options with competitive investment management costs
- the ability to continue your death and Total and Permanent Disablement (TPD) insurance cover (if any) from the Employee Section, Employee Section C or Partner Section as applicable subject to certain conditions
- the flexibility to apply to change your death and TPD insurance cover (subject to underwriting if you are increasing your level of cover)
- secure access to your account details via Member Online on our website anzstaffsuper.com or the app
- member representation on the Trustee Board
- access to other products such as account-based pensions through which you can access a pension if you are retiring or transitioning to retirement. You should consider the PDS for the Retirement Section before making a decision whether to invest in this product.

How your account works

Your account in ANZ Staff Super is recorded as unit holdings in one or a combination of the investment options. When contributions and roll ins are paid to your account, they "buy" more units. Conversely, when withdrawals and other deductions such as account management fees, insurance premiums and tax are processed, some of your units are sold. The dollar value of your account is worked out by multiplying the number of units you hold by the current unit price for the relevant investment options. The investment returns applied to your account are based on the movements in the unit price(s) of the investment option(s) you hold and will vary from year to year. These investment returns may be positive or negative.

Your benefits

Once you satisfy what's known as a 'condition of release', you will be entitled to your account balance plus any insured benefit which may be payable.

The section called "Benefits of investing with ANZ Staff Super – Personal Section" in the Personal Section in Detail booklet explains in more detail the benefits payable from ANZ Staff Super and how you may nominate your beneficiaries.

You should read the important information about "Benefits of investing with the ANZ Staff Super Personal Section" before making a decision. Go to anzstaffsuper.com > PDS and guides > Personal Section in Detail. The material relating to "Benefits of investing with the ANZ Staff Super Personal Section" may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

4. Risks of super

All investments carry some risk. Different investment options may carry different levels of risk depending on the asset allocation of the relevant investment options. Investing in assets with the highest long-term returns may also carry the highest level of short-term risk. The value of individual investments and the investment option(s) you choose will vary. The level of investment returns will vary over time and may go up or down. Future investment returns may differ from past returns. Investment returns are not guaranteed and you may lose some of your superannuation savings.

You should also bear in mind that:

- superannuation and tax laws may change in the future and such changes may affect your superannuation;
- the amount of your future superannuation savings (including contributions and investment returns) may not be enough to provide adequately for your retirement needs; and
- the level of risk you face will vary depending on a range of factors, including your age, your investment timeframes, your risk tolerance and where other parts of your wealth are invested.

The significant risks of investing in ANZ Staff Super include the risks associated with inflation, the performance of individual investments, uncertain markets, changes to interest rates, movements in exchange rates, the use of derivatives and changes to super and tax law.

The section called "Risks of super" in the Personal Section in Detail booklet explains in more detail the types of risk that may impact your superannuation.

You should read the important information about "Risks of super" before making a decision. Go to anzstaffsuper.com > PDS and guides > Personal Section in Detail. The material relating to "Risks of super" may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

5. How we invest your money

ANZ Staff Super provides four investment options with different asset allocations selected by the Trustee. Each investment option has a different risk and return profile so you can choose an investment option or mix of investment options that suits your needs and circumstances.

As a Personal Section member, you can choose where you want your account invested by selecting one, or a combination of, the following options:

- Aggressive Growth
- Balanced Growth (includes MySuper product)
- Cautious
- Cash.

You can select a different investment strategy for your existing account balance and your future cash flows such as contributions roll ins and account management fees.

From time to time, the investment options offered by ANZ Staff Super may change. The Trustee will notify members in advance in the event that the options offered change.

If you don't make a choice

When you transfer to the Personal Section, your account will be invested in the option(s) that most recently applied to you as a member of your former section of ANZ Staff Super.

Switching between investment options

You may request a switch of investment options daily. Switch requests can be lodged by electronic request via Member Online on our website anzstaffsuper.com or by using the 'Changing your investment options' form available from ANZ Staff Super. Valid switch requests received by 11pm (AEST/AEDT) on a business day will be held for three business days before processing. The request will be processed using the unit price in the administration system on the day the switch is processed, which will generally be derived from valuations at close of business three days earlier. Valid switch requests received after 11pm (AEST/AEDT) on a business day or a nonbusiness day will be treated as having been received on the following business day. Public holidays may disrupt the daily unit pricing cycle. Generally, unit prices won't be calculated on Victorian public holidays. Switches will be processed on the next available business day using the price in the administration system (providing requests have been held for at least three business days).

The section called "How we invest your money" in the Personal Section in Detail booklet explains investment options and investment approach in more detail. This information includes details about the asset classes used, the other investment options, making a choice, switching options, and the extent to which labour standards, or environmental, socially responsible or ethical considerations are taken into account in the selection, retention or realisation of ANZ Staff Super's investments.

You should consider the likely investment return, risk and your investment timeframe when choosing an option in which to invest.

6. Fees and costs

Did you know

Small differences in both investment performance and fees and costs can have a substantial impact on your long-term returns.

For example, total annual fees and costs of 2% of your account balance rather than 1% could reduce your final return by up to 20% over a 30-year period (for example, reduce it from $100,000 to $80,000). You should consider whether features such as superior investment performance or the provision of better member services justify higher fees and costs.

You or your employer, as applicable, may be able to negotiate to pay lower administration fees. Ask the fund or your financial adviser.

Find out more

If you would like to find out more, or see the impact of the fees based on your own circumstances, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) website (moneysmart.gov.au) has a superannuation fee calculator to help you check out different fee options.

Fees and costs summary for the Balanced Growth investment option (MySuper product)

The table below provides a summary of the main fees and costs for the Balanced Growth investment option (MySuper product) as set out below. This information can be used to compare costs between different superannuation products. The fees and costs are paid directly from your account or deducted from investment earnings.

Fees and costs summary

| Investment fees and costs[3] | 0.014% to 0.515%[4] p.a. of your account balance depending on your investment option | Deducted from your chosen investment option's investment earnings before the option's unit price is declared |
| Transaction costs | Nil | Not applicable |
| Member activity related fees and costs | | |

| Switching fee | Nil | Not applicable |

1 If your account balance for a product offered by ANZ Staff Super is less than $6,000 at the end of our income year, certain fees and costs charged to you in relation to administration and investment are capped at 3% of the account balance. Any amount charged in excess of that cap must be refunded. ANZ Staff Super's income year ends on 31 December.
2 A rebate of 0.03% p.a. of your account balance up to $500,000 currently applies, meaning the net account management fee for 2026 will be 0.16% p.a.
3 Investment fees and costs include amounts of 0.00% to 0.017% for performance fees.
4 Investment fees and costs are estimates. Actual costs vary from year to year. The investment fees and costs for 2025 were 0.014% - 0.515% p.a. depending on the investment option. The investment fees and costs are based on the investment fees and costs for the year ended 31 December 2025 except that amounts related to performance fees are based on the average performance fees for the 5 years ended 31 December 2025. (If an investment has not existed or did not provision for performance fees for the last 5 years – performance fees are based on the average for the period since the option has existed and provided for performance fees). The actual amount you will be charged in subsequent years will depend on the actual investment fees and costs incurred for the relevant period. The investment fees and costs are deducted from investment earnings before the unit price is declared. The amount is not negotiable.
5 Additional fees may apply. For details, refer to the "Fees and costs" section of the Personal Section in Detail booklet available from our website anzstaffsuper.com.

For definitions of the above fees, refer to the "Glossary" section of the Personal Section in Detail booklet available from our website anzstaffsuper.com.

The Trustee has the right to change the amount of fees without member consent. If we increase our fees, we will notify you no later than 30 days before the change occurs.

You can use the superannuation fee calculator on ASIC's Money Smart website to calculate the effect of fees and costs on account balances.

If you consult a financial adviser, you may need to pay additional fees to your financial adviser. The Statement of Advice provided by the adviser will state the fees (if any) you will pay.

7. How super is taxed

Tax on contributions

Concessional contributions includes all contributions made from your before-tax earnings, including SG contributions paid by your employer and any voluntary salary sacrifice contributions. Concessional contributions are subject to 15% contributions tax which is deducted from your account when the contributions are received.

If your income (including concessional contributions) exceeds $250,000 per annum, you may pay 30% contributions tax (rather than 15%) on some or all of your concessional contributions. This additional tax will not apply to contributions that are subject to excess contributions tax.

Concessional contributions are subject to a limit or cap. The limit for the 2026/27 tax year is $32,500 per annum.

Any concessional contributions in excess of your limit will be included in your assessable income and taxed at your marginal tax rate and for excess concessional contributions received prior to 1 July 2021, you will be required to pay an excess concessional contributions charge*. A non-refundable tax offset of 15% of your excess concessional contributions will apply to compensate you for the 15% contributions tax already paid on your concessional contributions. You will be entitled to elect to have up to 85% of your excess concessional contributions released from your superannuation.

* This charge is calculated by the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) and is intended to ensure that individuals who make excess concessional contributions do not receive tax deferral advantages over those who do not exceed their concessional contribution limit.

Excess concessional contributions are also counted towards your non-concessional contribution limit.

The amount of excess concessional contributions counted towards your non-concessional contribution limit will be reduced by any excess concessional contributions released from your superannuation.

Non-concessional contributions are those paid from after-tax monies. From 1 July 2017, individuals will generally be able to claim a tax deduction for after-tax personal contributions. These contributions are not taxed unless they exceed the limit. If you claim a tax deduction for these contributions, they will be treated as concessional contributions.

The non-concessional contribution limit is $130,000 per annum for the 2026/27 tax year. Your limit may vary if you can use the "bring forward" arrangements or if your total super balance exceeds $2.1 million from 1 July 2026. If you are under age 75, you can "bring forward" up to two years of non-concessional contributions, but your limit for the subsequent two financial years will be reduced. Based on a limit of $130,000, this means you can make an after-tax contribution of up to $390,000 in one financial year provided you do not make any non-concessional contributions for the next two financial years.

If your total super balance was $2.1 million or more at the end of the previous tax year, you will not be able to make non-concessional contributions. Amounts over the non-concessional contribution limit will be taxed at 45% plus the Medicare levy.

Individuals have the option of withdrawing superannuation contributions in excess of the non-concessional contribution limit and any associated earnings, with these earnings being taxed at the individual's marginal tax rate.

The contribution limits can change due to indexing. To check the current limits or obtain further information, visit the ATO website ato.gov.au.

⚠ If you exceed the concessional or non-concessional contribution limits, you may have to pay additional tax.

Tax on investment earnings

Investment earnings are subject to a tax rate of up to 15%.* Tax deductions, credits and rebates may apply and reduce the effective tax rate on investment earnings. The investment returns on your account are net of investment management costs and any tax on investment earnings. This tax is deducted as part of the calculation of the unit prices.

Tax on withdrawals

If you are age 60 or over, benefits are generally tax free when paid to you from a taxed superannuation fund like ANZ Staff Super.

If you are under age 60, tax is payable on any benefit paid to you in cash. The amount of tax payable depends on a range of factors, including your age, the reason your benefit is being paid and the composition of your benefit. This tax will be deducted from your benefit before it is paid to you.

Tax on rollovers

Generally no tax is payable on a benefit when you roll it over to another superannuation fund.

The section called "How super is taxed" in the Personal Section in Detail booklet explains in more detail how taxes apply to your superannuation.

⚠ You should provide your Tax File Number (TFN) to ANZ Staff Super if we don't have it recorded.

If ANZ Staff Super does not have your TFN:

- your concessional (pre-tax) contributions will be taxed at the highest marginal tax rate plus the Medicare levy;
- ANZ Staff Super will not be able to accept any non-concessional (post-tax) contributions for you;
- the taxable component of any benefit payments may be taxed at a higher rate; and
- you may miss out on receiving Government co-contributions.

You can check whether ANZ Staff Super has your TFN on your latest annual benefit statement or by signing into anzstaffsuper.com or calling us on 1800 000 086. You can provide your TFN by logging into anzstaffsuper.com or by completing a Providing your 'Tax File Number' form available on our website.

* From 1 July 2026, additional tax may be payable by individuals with a total super balance over $3 million. See the In Detail Booklet – Personal Section for more information.

You should read the important information about "How super is taxed" before making a decision. Go to anzstaffsuper.com > PDS and guides > Personal Section in Detail. The material relating to "How super is taxed" may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

8. Insurance in your super

Death and Total and Permanent Disablement (TPD) insurance cover is available to Personal Section members of ANZ Staff Super, who meet the relevant eligibility criteria and subject to certain conditions.

Zurich Australia Limited ABN 92 000 010 195 (the "Insurer") insures the death, terminal illness and Total and Permanent Disablement benefits offered by ANZ Staff Super through a group life insurance policy (the "policy") held by the Trustee.

Standard cover for members who transfer to the Personal Section on or after 1 January 2018

When you transfer to the Personal Section on leaving employment with ANZ or on closing your account in the Partner Section, unless an exception applies, subject to the maximum benefit level, your death and TPD (if applicable) cover will be:

| | |
|---|---|
| Former Employee Section member | Level of cover which most recently applied in the Employee Section |
| Former Employee Section C member who had Multi-level Cover | Full Cover |
| Former Partner Section member | Number of $50,000 "blocks" of cover (if any) you had in the Partner Section |

You do not need to apply for this cover. No health evidence is required.

You are not eligible for death or death and TPD cover in the Personal Section if you are transferring to the Personal Section because you have chosen to have future contributions and/or all or part of your account balance paid to another fund during your employment with ANZ. Your insurance cover ceased when you made that choice.

Standard cover for members who transferred to the Personal Section before 1 January 2018

Death cover#

Former Employee Section members who left employment with ANZ on or after 1 January 2006

Your death cover options are based on the current Employee Section arrangements. Personal Section death cover is available in "blocks" which are based on your age and Total Employment Cost (TEC) or Superannuation Salary ^ (if you didn't participate in TEC remuneration packaging) at the date you left employment with ANZ (i.e. your "exit TEC" or "exit Superannuation Salary").

Your initial death cover was the level of cover you had in the Employee Section. Normally this was the number of "blocks" of cover you had in the Employee Section, but any cover in excess of $1 million must have been accepted by the Insurer. This death cover ceases at age 66.

For details of what each block of cover is worth, refer to the "Insurance in your super" section of the Personal Section in Detail booklet.

^ Your Superannuation Salary means your annual base salary plus any allowances ANZ determined to be included as salary, provided that you do not participate in Total Employment Cost (TEC) remuneration packaging. For employees on TEC remuneration packaging, your Superannuation Salary is equivalent to your notional salary.

Former Employee Section C members who had Multi-level Cover and former Employee Section members who left employment with ANZ before 1 January 2006.

Depending on the level of cover you had when you left ANZ, you may have up to five options for your death cover. For details of the cover options, refer to the "Insurance in your super" section of the Personal Section in Detail booklet.

This death cover ceases at age 60 for former Employee Section C members and former Employee Section members who left ANZ before 1 January 2006.

Former Partner Section members

Your initial death cover was the number of $50,000 "blocks" of cover (if any) you had in the Partner Section. This death cover ceases at age 66.

It is important to understand that Personal Section death cover is only payable in the event of your death and is paid in addition to your account balance. Personal Section death cover is not payable on total and permanent disablement.

Age-based TPD cover

When you transferred to the Personal Section on leaving employment with ANZ or on closing your account in the Partner Section prior to 1 October 2017, you were provided with age-based TPD cover, subject to the following conditions:

- you must have death cover in the Personal Section; and
- you must have had contributions paid to your account in the last twelve months, and you continue to make contributions to the Personal Section at least on an annual basis i.e. you must make a contribution no later than 12 months after your previous contribution. Your TPD cover will lapse twelve months after the last contribution.

For details of the age-based minimum TPD cover, refer to the "Insurance in your super" section of the Personal Section in Detail booklet.

The standard annual premiums for Personal Section death cover currently range from $0.49 to $8.48 per $1,000 cover. The premium you actually pay will depend on your age and the level of cover you have. Currently, a rebate of 45% applies to the cost of your death cover. For example, if you are age 40 and a former Employee Section member with a TEC of $60,000 and four blocks of cover, your net cost for $240,000 of cover would be $121.44 per annum (i.e. $220.80 per annum less 45% rebate). The cost of cover and rebate may change in the future.

There are exclusions, conditions and events that may affect your death cover.

The cost of cover and rebate may change in the future.

There are exclusions, conditions and events that may affect your TPD cover.
